The music on Something to Say is pop-rock to folk-rock guaranteed to hammer you with melody and take you apart with sheer poetry. 13 MP3 Songs ROCK: Acoustic, POP: Folky Pop Details: Steven Kalas is a prolific and multi-faceted songwriter who avoids artistic formulas, rules, and genres at all cost. His lyrics are a gaping mirror into the human experience-extraordinary images of ordinary life. His melodies bring surprised smiles to the faces of musicians and everyday listeners alike; sooner or later, you are ambushed by chord changes and voicings you didn't expect and could never have seen coming. We gave some of our fans a sneak preview of a couple of the songs on our new CD "Finally Here". One reviewer said, "The pacing of this guitar is quite hypnotic. Such a complete song, and the echoing harmony so subtle! Pure energy. This song is simply a classic. A milestone piece to compare all future work by and one to listen to time and again." And this from a fellow songwriter, "Steven, how do you pack so much of yourself into 4 minutes? The lyrics are butter. It's so good. The symbolisms are not only natural and simple, but also complete and transcending." Check it out...YOU'RE IN FOR A HELLUVA RIDE! - - - - - NEWS!!!
