some of the Hottest reggae music out of Hawaii, featuring two of Jamaica's top Dj's Lutan Fyah, Prezident Brown and St. Croix singing sensation Ras Attitude 14 MP3 Songs WORLD: Reggae, WORLD: Island Details: Greetings in the name of the Most High JAH Rastafari. From a majestic island formed of fire comes the mystic sounds of the Lambsbread. The Lambsbread's combination of a King and Queen in Harmony delivers a crucial sound in these serious times. Born on Oct. 4, 1973 in the hills outside of San Diego, Ca. Matthew "Kaya" Rathje is the moving force of the Lambsbread. As a young child Kaya began his education in music theory and later learned to play the guitar. Inspired through the teachings of Rastafari, lead vocalist Kaya began writing the first Lambsbread songs ten years ago and continues to bring forth powerful songs full of praise to JAH. Kaya's thundering vocals are highlighted by female vocalist Nadia's angelic tones. Born Sept. 28 1973 in Toronto, Canada. Nicole "Nadia" Butt was raised with the Caribbean culture of her mother in Miami, Fl. Gifted with a golden voice Nadia became part of the Lambsbread in the year 2000 and since has been collaborating with Kaya in the creation of new Lambsbread tunes. Their blazing new album SALVATION is set to be released May of 2006. It features the single "Mountain Top" with Prezident Brown on the "red razor" riddim a Zion High/Lustre Kings Production. SALVATION also includes the hip-hop, dancehall infused tune "Struggle" featuring Lutan Fyah who recently debuted in Hawaii. It was the Lambsbread that set the stage for Lutan at Kauai's hottest reggae event of the year, the annual "One Love Reggae Unity Festival". Teaming up with St. Croix singing sensation Ras Attitude on the track "Teach Dem" the Lambsbread and Attitude offer spiritual bread for the youth of tomorrow. "Mighty and True" with Arkangel links up an international collaboration riding on the "high noon" riddim from Germaican Records. Their debut album SING PRAISE helped open the door for the Lambsbread. The track "Love in the House" on the "liberation" riddim (Zion High Productions) was released in Jamaica on 7in bringing the Lambsbread to an international audience as well as featuring them with artists such as Capleton, Yami Bolo, Turbulence, Lutan Fyah and others. At stageshows the Lambsbread has performed alongside major reggae artists such as Luciano, Mikey General, Toots and the Maytals, Don Carlos, the Itals Yami Bolo, Prezident Brown and most recently Lutan Fyah. At this concert a higher heights vibration ran through out the crowd and had the audience singing the lyrics with the Lambsbread. The Lambsbread is working diligently to create positive change on the Earth through the guidance of the Almighty, JAH RASTAFARI, building music to uplift every nation.
