His original songs are heard on the radio in places as far away as Australia. Both as a solo performer and as a member of the comedy-music duo Faust Lewis, Wayne has done over 5000 shows. His live show can turn any evening into a party - a night full of great music, comedy, and improvisation. And most of all, fun. Lots of fun. And now Wayne has recorded a CD of beautiful, lyrical, mellow songs. Here's the blurb about that from the CD liner notes: "You do funny songs, so why a collection of ballads?" That's a good question. I've been writing songs like these all my life, along with the funny songs I am more well-known for. I've done a lot of these songs at concerts, and people always asked when I was going to record some of them. I thought it was time... Wayne Faust Evergreen, Colorado
