With its own style and distinctive "Empty House" is the new production that arises from the soul of Arcadio, an album that mixes Banda and Duranguense, without forgetting the distinctive stamp romantic who always printed on each of its subjects. 11 MP3 Songs LATIN: General, LATIN: Banda Show all album songs: Casa Vaca Songs Details: Speaking of Arcadio Vazquez, referring to a man whose mentality exists only in the idea of overcoming both being and artist, a dreamer man, who since childhood has fought hard to consolidate itself as a composer, interpreter, arranger and producer of his music. We are proud son of parents Craftsmen, who inherits a taste for art, a born September 19, 1982 in the town of Temalacatzingo, Guerrero, Mexico. Since childhood shows his passion for music and philosophy, but by the difficult times facing in their lives, prevent him from studying, enjoy and devote themselves fully to them. At a very early age, after school, I had to join the artisan work to help their parents, an art he learned from them and through which, gained important recognition, highlighting two awards: first place at the state level and another Nacional. When he was 13 he met a group of local music, whose members are identified quickly; grouping later to be known as Grupo Santos, which years later become part. At that age, only limited to accompany the Organization in its various presentations by the region. While it is worth mentioning that years ago and the future composer, for his mind was learning to play guitar, an instrument which was presented by his father. His early letters, somewhat simple, they are forgotten when in the year 1999, already 17 years old, decides to enter the Seminary located in Chilapa, Gro. To study philosophy, it's that after 4 years ends the course successfully. During his stay in that city, and under the influence of great artists of the time such as Marco Antonio Solis and Joan Sebastian, not only merely studying philosophy, in short periods of vacation took courses at the School of Music "from the Diocese of Tlapa, Gro. Of which he obtained certified instructor General of Music and then a Diploma in

Musical Harmony. Since returning to his hometown, and with a great ability in a number of instruments, there is a reunion with that group's music years ago, this time as a member and first debuted with the Saxophone, then Guitarist and second voice of the group and Santos. A couple of years later, internal problems in the group, all roads remain distinct. Arcadio Vazquez to come back and improve those compositions made years ago, and this is how, in the year 2005 under the label editions Vazquez, decided to record his first album titled: Depends on You 'My Last Gift', which due to the large economic obstacles facing, provides information and promote until the year 2006. From the album shows are hits like "When You And Your Case" and "Depends on You" are a great success in the local radio stations. A year later, in February, Arcadio Vazquez simultaneously presents two new productions: the first under the title "The girl of the College" a new musical album, always with style and unreleased tracks, which are emerging as a success Call My Love, Every Que Te Miro, and the College Girl, to name a few, and the second, an album of poems entitled "A Feeling ... Done Poem," which means a new challenge in his career. Philosopher artist by profession and heart depends on you follow that history writing Sitio Oficial En Espaol: arcadiovazquez.com
