Its the sort of down-home music you expect to hear played on a back porch, or under an apple tree, by work-worn hands that never come quite clean. 8 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Country Folk, FOLK: Traditional Folk Details: Its not tidy music. Its not about clean sounds, pop-polished tunes, or formulaic singles. Its about rough-edges. Rugged backgrounds. Inventive melodies. Its the sort of down-home music you expect to hear played on a back porch, or under an apple tree, by work-worn hands that never come quite clean. Aria Eaton and her band craft this home-spun material with all the traditional tools of the trade, as well as a few less-established musical notions like railroad spikes and six-penny nails. Fronting a varying ensemble of seasoned musicians, Aria leads her band through a repertoire of songs that journeys through valleys of fear, over rugged peaks of troubled love, and back down to the ever-moving waters of hope. Its a topography thats well known to all who live and love, and the travelers tales from those places are beautifully spun on Arias new EP, The Blackest Crow. So settle onto your back porch, pour yourself a glass of sweet tea, and enjoy the untidy tunes and age-old tales, sung by a sweet new voice. The Blackest Crow EP Aria Eaton produced by Joey Lemon
