Along with performing background vocals for national acts such as blues singer Susan Tedeschi and Jon Paris, Barbara has been a regular performer at all of the major music festivals in Milwaukee including Summerfest, Third Ward Jazz Festival, Rainbow Summer, Jazz In The Park, the Sharon Lynne Wilson Center and many others. She was also a featured performer at The Bitter End in New Yorks Greenwich Village last September. Her voice has been featured on many commercials including Hyundai, AT&T. Her newly released original album entitled Im Awake, is a culmination of the many styles of music she loves with influences that range from Stevie Wonder to Sting to Ella Fitzgerald. Visit her website at barbarastephanfor more information. About the Music Everyone has their story, and Barbara is no different. This album is about coming out of dark places and finding light anywhere and in anything. The album is entitled Im Awake because she has finally been waking up to the possibilities of life and has it all reflected in the music. It's all about following joy, following bliss and leaving behind everything that drags
