A Neo/Classic Soul artist giving you the feel of roots Soul music similar to the likes of Otis Redding, Sam Cooke and others.... 6 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: Soul, URBAN/R&B: Contemporary urban Details: Brian Abais', a talented independent Neo Classic Soul Artist, Writer, Composer and Producer brings you his Soul music to who has ears to hear. In a time like this, who would have thought that an artist like Abais' would rise with such a soulful voice like the artists of the 60's did? Not to mention the powerful lyrics and the way he compose his songs are felt deep down in the soul. As a little boy, Abais' loved to sing along with the soul music his moms always use to play at home. Back then the soul music did not affect him the way it does now. But after listening to the Soul Music of his role model "Otis Redding" at a later age, Abais' really decided to start singing. The determination to carry on the legacy of this great artist and Soul Music in general, felt inevitable to him. "Sam Cooke" is another soul artist Abais' is fond of. Abais' has a raw, natural and honest sounding voice, but he is also able to sway you of your feet with a smooth and clear voice. On top of all this, Abais' musical style is diverse in a most positive and energetic way and it sounds universal. This way people can relate themselves to a certain song/style. Abais' kicks off with his self released album "Just 2 give y'all a taste", recorded at Abais Soul Records, to make you taste a tip of the iceberg and to show his diversity. You can listen at CD Baby to 3 tracks. To here the other tracks you have to go to brianabais.com. I would say this man has doomed out of the shadows of the old timer's. But since he is here, let's enjoy what he has to offer! So sit back relax and listen to what this Soul man and his music have to say. Who has ears to hear, shall hear.
