Emotionally powerful electronica with smooth vocals and heartfelt lyrics. 13 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Pop Crossover, ELECTRONIC: Industrial Details: Dekoy formed in October 2002. A demo, heartwerk, was soon thereafter released to some positive feedback, receiving the top slot on Isotank's ASLEEP BY DAWN "Wake-up Call: Albums" Debut Charts and the "Best Demo Of 2003" by ElektronskiZvuk 95.2 Radio Sjeverozapad Croatia. On February 14th, 2004, Dekoy released their first full-length album, REDUX - heartwerk - a 13 track CD Digipak featuring guest vocals from Kristy Venrick (The Azoic) and operatic treatments from Lygia Travesty (Temple of Misery). They released their second full-length, Haunted on October 31st, 2006. A 12 track CD Digipak featuring choir treatments, again, from the amazing Lygia Travesty. Conceptually, Haunted deals with issues of abandonment, loss, true regret and the ways in which these things so heavily factor into and affect the course of our lives, regardless of whether we choose to deal with them. The core idea being to empower oneself to constantly strive for self-improvement and emotional clarity. Or maybe it's just a bittersweet story of circumstance with no "happy ending". Or just dance music. To each their own...
