The only problem was, in which way would she go? Music, Business, Entrepreneur, Politics, Public Speaking or another direction altogether. Extremely active, ambitious, and determined. Janice has fought long and hard to reach the point in life at which she finds herself today. It seems that she is now in a place where she's comfortable to position herself for what greater accomplishments are to come. For those of you that remember, Janice was the singer " Delilah" with a single called "Lost In Love". The song was reminiscent of early "Stacy Lattisaw music", and quite a frenzy at times as when the song was requested radio stations would either play Janice's song "Lost In Love" or New Edition's song "Lost In Love". In any case, it may have been a blessing in disguise for both artists. Janice studied music and vocal training in high school and also at the renowned Peabody Conservatory in Baltimore. She has been involved in various aspects of music, fashion, and television, of which she is currently working on "The Wire" playing the role of an addict. The future holds much promise, but where will she go?
