Details: JESSE DAMON BIO KISS Songwriter Artist Jesse Damon Launches "The Hand That Rocks" to awaiting Fans... Jesse Damon is a solo artist , and has a four piece rock band from Southern California, that have been rocking the music scene for the last two years. Influenced by such classic bands like KISS, Cheap Trick, Bon Jovi, Def Leppard, and Foreigner, he brings a sound within his music that also fits today's mold, and rivals the likes of your Goo Goo Dolls, Creed's, and Gin Blossoms of our time! This artist's signature sound enables his listeners to hear a rock blend of "Classic meet's Modern." Jesse Damon has been on the forefront of the melodic rock scene, and in that time he has seen success with his other recording group Silent Rage, who have released three critically acclaimed albums, including the Gene Simmons produced "Don't Touch Me There" (Simmons/RCA), a favorite on MTV's Head Bangers Ball. Jesse's songwriting credits are impressive. He has co-written and developed songs that appear on the KISS albums "Revenge," and "Psycho Circus," and his songs have also appeared on television and in major motion pictures. His debut solo album "The Hand That Rocks" was produced by Paul Sabu, and is packed full of high energy rock, and seasoned with intense melodic ballads. The album features a co-written rock anthem by Gene Simmons and Jesse Damon called "Everybody Needs Somebody," and Jesse has earned his mark as a part of the KISS family, under the helm of Gene Simmons, and also a place as a Simmons/RCA Records alumnus. Now, Jesse Damon is showing the world his commitment to his music, and fans everywhere! He's currently in the studio recording brand new material for his second solo CD. Look for a brand new album from him in 2004! THE BAND (Jesse Damon; Guitar and Vocals)

Jesse has been a singer, songwriter, and guitarist for the better part of two decades. Performing live on stage, recording, and songwriting have been Jesse's legacy as a musician not only with Silent Rage but with such music legends and artists: KISS, Gene Simmons, Bob Ezrin, Paul Subu, Kevin Beamish, Bruce Kulick, Eric Singer, Doro Pesche, Randy Castillo, and has written and appeared on many CD's, including his own solo debut "The Hand That Rocks." Most notably he received a Gold Album for his co-writing with Gene Simmons with the song "Thou Shalt Not, " off the 1992 KISS CD "Revenge." Jesse's vocals and guitar playing are a driving force in today's music! (Rodney Pino; Drums and Vocals) Rodney's strong drumming and vocal talent are his main contributions to this band. Also a Southern California native who grew up in the South Bay, he's a veteran player with numerous gigs and performances under his belt. He was the Original drummer in (Love/Hate), and has played with many named artists in the Business! Rodney's also an accomplished songwriter that sings, plays guitar, and fronts his own band in his spare time, while he's not recording, or touring with Jesse Damon or Silent Rage! (Troy Spiropoulos; Bass and Vocals) Troy has played Bass and sang with this quartet for the past year and is the newest member of Jesse's band. His presence on stage is intense, and strong to the viewers in the audience. In the nineties, Troy played Bass in several band Projects, most recently a group called Pow Wow, of which they released a self titled CD in 2001. Troy's bass playing has entertained audiences throughout the U.S., and continues to whew every crowd! (Rob Klein; Guitar and Vocals) Rob is best known for being a diverse guitarist and musician of talents, singer, lead and rhythm guitarist, session recording keyboardist, and has been a session player in many projects, most recently, Rob's been recording session demo's with the guitarist in Alice Cooper, as well as lending out his guitar and songwriting skills on Tuesday Knight's debut CD in which Knight and Klein co-wrote the single "Is It All In My Head."
