Australian artist with her debut Album released through Columbia International Japan and Multiplay Music Australia. Collection of powerful pop/adult contemporary big ballads. Jodie is an amazing performance artist with an astonishing vocal range. Contact 11 MP3 Songs POP: Today's Top 40, CLASSICAL: Contemporary Details: Jodie-Joy was born and educated in Sydney Australia where she studied music and dance and trained vocally to sing both popular and classical music. As a third generation professional singer, with her father Robin Donald Smith and her grandfather Donald Sydney Smith (OBE) being internationally acclaimed operatic tenors, Jodie was destined to be a performer and a recording artist. Throughout her career, as well as developing her artistic talents vocally and as a performer, Jodie has also continued to expand her talents as a songwriter. She has created expressive and powerful music, working with some of Australia's most popular and notable artists and songwriters including Daniel Jones and Hayden Bell (Savage Garden), Thomas Who (Shannon Noll), Audius (Delta Goodrem), Dead Mono (Ronan Keating). As a professional performer, Jodie first burst onto the Australian television scene with regular appearances with the "Good New Week" program on Channel 10, appeared as the opening act for the Australian "Logie Awards" and was also chosen as a finalist in the Australian Pop Stars series. She achieved much acclaim and recognition by being voted by the Australian public, as one of Australia's most popular rising singing stars. Jodie has supported many high profile acts touring throughout Australia and south-east Asia, where she has also choreographed and starred in her own productions. Jodie's has a vast performing and musical repertoire that embraces both popular and classical music. As a testament to her talents, her debut album "I Still Believe", (which was released by Columbia Records in Japan in 2005), comprised a mixture of both popular and classical cross-over songs. Jodie is noted as a contemporary beauty, with the perfect blend of sexy, sweet and playful demure that radiates her personal strength and vitality which gives her a presence to her audience, both live on stage, radio and on camera. Embracing her family heritage, Jodie has continued to evolve vocally to develop and extend the unique sound of her natural lyrical soprano voice to now embrace a more classical style of music. Having performed in concert with both her father and grand father, Jodie believes that her destiny is to achieve acclaim as a performer and recording artist, with the capability to secure international recognition herself as a semi-classical, adult contemporary performer and artist.
