It's a gift he was born with and has always enjoyed. He's not a trained musician, but music is in his being. It's how he communes with his Maker. Since most of his music was done for movies, his works contain a range of music styles from lullabies to action-packed police chase scores, from waltzes to calls to arms, and from hymns to bawdy street themes. Yet, through it all you will recognize his inimitable style. So far, we have put together 3 CDs of his works. The second one, "A Few of My Favorite Themes" is described below. The third, "From the Heart" will be available soon. Watch for it and more to come. Ann L. Todd
