The hottest rap compilation of 00/01. This is the new era the Damali Family is bringing it to the streets with original styles and beats. 11 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Rap, HIP HOP/RAP: East Coast Details: KNOTZ is a hip-hop group comprised of three dynamic performers who are actually blood brothers. Dreadchild (Kareem Parkins), Megaton (Jelani Parkins), and Aswad Mikal the Black Angel (Gyasi Parkins), have been performing earnest for several years. Their first large stage performance was in 1995 at the RCA Dome in Indianapolis, Indiana for a BET sponsored event Catch Wreck 95". Since then, Knotz has done a host of shows, released a CD Download in December 2000 and continue to forge ahead with its own brand of Hip-Hop. The Download CD was produced and released by the groups independently owned record label, Damali Records. With limited funding and practically no mass media promotion Download sold approximately 5000 units and has been featured on over 47 underground and college radio stations throughout the United States and Canada. Two cuts from the Cd Move and Blackout Season, received extensive underground airplay. Additionally, Move was also featured on Insomniac Magazines EP, Strategic Infiltration. KNOTZ is made up of a cadre of dedicated performers who are unrelenting in their push to the top of the Hip-Hop scene. More information on the group is available online at damalimusic.com.
