Born and raised in Nashville, TN, LaJuan Diggs is on the verge of becoming one of today's greatest Christian hip hop artist with his message of love, truth and righteousness. After being set free from a life of drugs, fornication, robbery and feeling separated from God, LaJuan has brought the truth of how Jesus loved him to life on his latest album. His latest release entitled Romans 5:8 "While We Were Sinners" brings hope to all who listen. With a focus on the love of Jesus and how Jesus died while we were sinners, LaJuan encourages people through his music and reveals that they can't earn God's love with their works or how they live, but they can access God's love through Jesus with their faith. With a ministry focused on the young and young at heart , LaJuan has a vision to give the saved and unsaved an alternative to the negative hip-hop music that circulates the radio airwaves. Already creating a buzz within the music industry, the church and local Christian scene, LaJuan sells and promotes his CD as he pursues the attention of a major record label. With a powerful message that brings truth and life to all who listens, LaJuan Diggs is ready to share this message with the world.
