Songs Details: Learning Tunes. Com Education brings an opportunity to invest into the lives of children around the world. The World Core Curriculum Institution has established a learning standard for all countries. The method of imparting this varies from not only from country to country, but also from county to county. Our government has employed the No Child Left Behind Program to assist in helping with education. Teachers and Administrators are looking for more creative and effective ways to teach. This is where Learning Tunes.Com comes into place. We have done research on the power of music recall and concluded that music will stimulate the mind and store away the information until needed. We used several pilot schools for two years with reports that the children learn faster and the teachers become more creative in their teaching methods. Now it is time for Learning Tunes.Com to broaden its reach to help further millions of childrens lives. We are a production company that takes the class subjects and convert them into songs. We have listened to educators and are producing the subjects they need most from Elementary to the High School Graduation Test. Learning Tunes.Com has placed their product into the hands of educators from Georgia to the UK, Austria, Spain and parts of Africa. All the reports are the same and the demand for our product is URGENT. The purpose of the education project is to: educate the children through music and core curriculum; with the benefits of mind stimulation, repetition, and fun; resulting in faster learning with more clarity. Our mission is to put this educational tool in the hands of every student. This tool will cover class lessons, per semester during the school year. It is our intent to help the school system in the developing of strong minds; a tool to be used as a reinforcement to help improve our nations academic scores. Raising our kids with a steady beat! Contact: Dirk Thomas @ Learningtunes Joel Media WordMix Publishing gives thanks on behalf of Learning Tunes. We give thanks and praise to the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ for without him I would not be who I am for he calls me friend. I would like to dedicate this Learning Tunes project to my loving son Joshua Thomas. Joshua was playing basketball on December 9th 06 for Shamrock Middle School, Dekalb county Decatur, Georgia. He collapsed during the game and later passed away. To this day there is an unknown cause of death. He would have been 15 years old on December 17th 2006. This event in our lives has caused us to realize that there are hundreds of young kids who die each year having fun while playing sports. We are going to taking a portion of the funds and start a foundation in Joshuas name to help prevent this unknown taker of our childrens lives. I want to personally give thanks to Josephus Cunningham of Joel Media for writing the lyrics; for without the words arranged in such an accurate manner we would not have a reason for a steady beat. The producers and engineers, Joseph Cunningham who was inspired by his wife Monica, Kenneth G. Pryor Jr. of Washington D.C. and Timothy Gilchrist with In God We Trust Production of Atlanta, Georgia. This is the Bio of Learning Tunes.Com Spokes person and Cover Girl CRYSTAL ASHLEE Singer, actress. Born Crystal Ashlee Heimberger in Miami, Florida. She is the daughter of the late Evangelist James Nicholas Heimberger. Crystals voice has been compared to that of Grammy award winner, Whitney Houston. Like Whitney, Crystal also began singing in the local gospel choir with her mother, Valerie Curry-Heimberger. She is a unique prodigy the world will see for many years to come. Her stage performances radiate an explosion of emotional energy, allowing Crystal to captivate the entire audience with her phenomenal, powerful voice! Since the age of 4, Crystal was always singing at her fathers evangelistic revivals. Her dynamic voice and petite, cute appearance awarded her many invitations to compete in local beauty pageants and talent shows. At age 5, she met the Godfather of Soul, the late James Brown, who invited her to sing at his birthday bash. It was said that Mr. Brown saw the gleam in her eyes, telling her she would be a bright star. A star she is! Crystal was awarded the title of Little Miss

North Carolina. After which, she also focused on community service by performing for the Cancer Society in Nashville, as well as a fund-raiser event for the Kiwanis Club. One early highlight of her career was singing the Star Spangled Banner for President Bill Clinton at the White House during a Walk With Jesus campaign. By the age of 7, Crystal recorded her very first song. During her early childhood career, Crystal performed with several stars including Isaac Hayes, M.C. Hammer, and gospel recording artist Virtue. By the age of 9, her tour schedule had already included the Birmingham Jazz Festival in Alabama, the Peachtree Morning Show in Atlanta, CBS in Nashville, and Gaylord Entertainment in Opryland. However, Crystals career is not a complete fairy tale story. After the death of her father, her life changed dramatically. The desire to sing quickly faded away, and her will to live was slowly diminishing. This depression made her vulnerable to a society that could not comprehend the hurt she was experiencing. During this time, she was in an unfamiliar environment with nowhere to turn. The only outlet to escape this heartache and pain was to write. At the age of 12, she wrote her first song. To heal the wounds caused by her fathers death, she would sing in remembrance of him. Beautifully gift wrapped in her own sheet of music, she maintained her bright bow of a smile, as well as a strong inward drive and determination for success. With this newfound motivation, Crystal gained recognition all over the world. She traveled to New York, LA, Detroit, Miami and a host of other cities. She also sang nightly at the legendary B.B. King restaurant in Nashville, TN. Artists such as Germaine Jackson, as well as major labels, including Sony Records, have heard Crystal perform. A number of producers and investors had been in discussion with her mother, Valerie, regarding Crystals career. However, timing and stability were major factors affecting the decision to pursue singing as a profession. Well, that time has come and the time is now! In hopes of launching Crystals career, Valerie sold all her possessions and moved to Atlanta in August 2006. With nothing but drive and determination, Valerie searched for the right professional combination who could take Crystals career to the next level. The search ended when she signed a management contract with the Mauldin Brand Agency. Under the direction of the firms General Manager, Demmette Guidry, who has invested precious time, they have had an immediate impact on her life. The rest is history. Crystal will release her debut album the summer of 2007 entitled Crystal Ashlee. Her first hit single, Pushing Me Away is already a hit tune in many of the entertainment venues around Metro Atlanta. Her music will make a profound affect in the entertainment industry. Crystals desire is to instill a positive message into women who have been hurt in their lives: physically, spiritually, and emotionally.

Regardless of anyone's current situation, you can be and have anything that you believe you can be and have. You will see and hear her name again and again, Crystal Ashlee, and you will never forget her dynamic voice!
