This IS that sound. I've had so many requests for a "rain" CD. No music. No vocals, No thunder. No wind. Just rain. Only rain. Nothing but rain. Soothing, relaxing, refreshing, "help you to unwind", "help you to sleep", rain. Rain falling in a place far away from everyday stress, cares, and tension. After countless hours of recording over several years and in many different locations, I finally captured the rain ambience that I am truly happy with. And once you hear it, you'll know that it was worth the wait.... * F7 Sound and Vision is my "dream job". It's where I get to record the sounds of nature and create the sounds of the future. It's where I get to test new gear and use it in ways it may not have been intended. It's where I get to shoot hi-def video and share it with the world. It's where even my strangest ideas can become reality (now we're in trouble). 2009 is my 16th year of operating as F7 Sound and Vision. What started in 1993 as an audio and video production business has evolved into "virtual", on demand media. What started out serving a small community is now serving a global market. What was once limited by "brick and mortar" (and an apartment lease) is now an exponential expression via the internet
