placement. Currently Pal Steelo (Paul McDonnell) and Dave Molloy are promoting their single Josephine in Ireland. It was chosen as track of the month on Downtown Radio Belfast and is A listed on U105.8. It has also made several play lists throughout Ireland and reached No.1. on downloadmusic.ie. Josephine showcases the high standard that Pal Steelo set for themselves as writers. It was inspired by the book written by Jean Dominique Bauby the former editor in Chief of Elle Magazine, France. The Diving Bell and the Butterfly is the true story of a man suffering from Locked In Syndrome. He was paralysed save for the blinking of one eye. With this eye he devised a method of dictating his thoughts from his hospital bed to a caring nurse. Josephine was a woman he was in love with in his past . He upset her on a road trip to Lourdes and Pal Steelos inspired song is an apology he may have offered. For more info , live video etc please go to myspace.com/palsteelo
