Over the past five years God has afforded me the opportunity to work with some prominent people in different genres. I got my start working with Big Moses from Shelter Records in 1999. I later met K-Gee of Divine Mill and worked with him for a few months. During that time I was introduced to Chris Herbert from the Three Boys From Newark camp. During my affiliation with their company, I was musically instrumental in the development of a few of their artist. I was about to sign a major production deal when God turned my focus to music that would glorify Him. Presently, I am the CEO of Naaka Music Group, an independent urban contemporary label based in New Jersey. I also function as the executive vice president of artist development and production coordinator of Son Light Media. Coming Soon... Veronica Wilson, Jo Nathan, Marc, Out Of The Vault, Oh My Soul...
