Rhiannon ----- Info about Rhiannon Rhiannon is from Knoxville, Tennessee. She began to play guitar and write her own music in 2001 after suffering a neck and back injury in a head-on auto collision caused by hazardous road conditions. Though she has no visible injuries, she was no longer able to work as a cosmetology instructor so she turned to music as a way to pass the time, and after people heard her songs, they encouraged her to record them, so she did, and here they are.

----- when a hospital patient is sick...music can make a difference- do you have a cd to donate ? please consider donating a cd to hospital "listening library" programs for patients who have to be in the hospital for extended periods here is one hospital listening library program i know about i found out about it by searching opportunities at cdbaby.org donate cds by sending them to judy ginsgurg arts healthcare po box 12692 alexandria, louisiana 71315 be sure to package your cd

----- the story behind the songs

----- SOLDIER AND THE FORTUNE TELLER Rhiannon tells the wonderfully romantic story of a soldier who goes to see a fortune teller during the war in Vietnam while he is recovering from an injury in a place called Vung Tau which was an R&R resort similar to China Beach. You'll be enchanted as she tells of the conversation that takes place between them as she answers his questions about love through fortune telling methods such as palm and tea-leaf reading.

----- EKANEETLEE SUNRISE Rhiannon tells the story of the conversations she and her father had about a painting he displayed on the living room wall of thier modest home when she was a young child of his favorite camping site in the Great Smokies-during these conversations, Rhiannon learned about the forced relocation of the Cherokee along the "Trail Of Tears" and of her own Native ancestry. ----- BLUE ROSES Rhiannon

sings about love and romance. ----- LIVIN' IN THE SUN

----- THE MOORS Rhiannon wrote this song about her favorite movie "Wuthering Heights" starring Juliete Binoche and Ralph Feinnes as Cathy and Heathcliffe.(based on the book Wuthering Heights by Emily Bronte) ----- SONG

LYRICS SONG LYRICS SONG LYRICS -----

EKANEETLEE SUNRISE VERSE 1 HE LIKES TO WATCH THE EKANEETLEE SUNRISE COMIN' UP WHILE HE'S SIPPIN' FROM HIS FAVORITE STARRY STARRY CUP GOLDEN GLOW BETWEEN THE TREES MOUNTAIN LAUREL ON THE BREEZE CHORUS THE EKANEETLEE SUNRISE NEVER FADES NEVER A LINE AND NO ADMISSION AT THE GATE EV'RY MORNINS' A SURPRISE SOFTLY PAINTED ON THE SKY VERSE 2 HE'LL SHOW YOU A PLACE BETWEEN THE BRANCHES OF THE TREES AS HE TELLS FORGOTTEN STORIES OF THE CHEROKEE YOU CAN SEE THE TRAIL OF TEARS HEAR THEM FALLIN' IN YOUR EARS REPEAT CHORUS VERSE 3 SAW THE SHADOW OF AN EAGLE AT THE WATER'S EDGE SAW A FEATHER FLOATIN' SOFTLY ON A RIVER BED HE SAID "THE EAGLE'S ONLY FRIEND IS THE KINDNESS OF THE WIND" REPEAT CHORUS

----- Blue Roses still can see us standin' there in a memory that we share may have been the end of the line but for a moment you were mine you gave me blue roses blue roses blue roses that will never fade i'll be waitin' there for you when the sun is on the dew when you see me standin' there hold me closer if you dare and give me blue roses blue roses blue roses that will never fade when the storm comes rollin' in open windows -let it in see the lighntin' feel the wind let the rain come pourin' in and give me blue roses blue roses blue roses that will never fade

----- the moors-----based on wuthering heights saw a book on the shelf one day and it just seemed to call my name told of a gypsy and a girl took me to another world heathcliffe was silent he was dark and only one could hold his heart and how cathy loved him too he was all she ever knew and to the moors they'd run away he'd watch the wind caress her face and when they'd find a place to rest she'd lay her head upon his chest he overheard miss cathy say that she could never take his name took what he had and went away left her standin' in the rain her spirit never left the heights lookin' for the candlelight roamed the earth near 20 years waitin' for her love so dear and to the moors they'd run away he'd watch the wind caress her face and when they'd find a place to rest she'd lay her head upon his chest ----- soldier and the fortune teller verse 1

she came down from Little Paris with Flyin' Stars and candied lotus she had found the perfect place to teach the Pillars of thier fate verse 2 went down to Vung Tau for some rest with a bindin' for his crest saw a room with silk and lace and paper roses in a vase chorus how far from the handle wondered if she'd know the answer how far from the handle soldier and the fortune teller payoff said to her "can you read the leaves ?" "who was born for lovin' me ?" "how far from the handle ?" "how long will it be ?" verse 3 she held his palm within her hand to see just how his heartline ran union line was fallin' down with breaks and islands all around verse 4 she saw HER in the moon and stars a baby cradled in the dark far across the ocean miles it's gonna be a long long while repeat chorus bridge someday he will notice her singin' like a lonely love bird she will love him at first sight somehow it will turn out right repeat chorus tag how far from the handle ?...she blew out the candle then she said "far from the handle"

----- livin' in the sun verse 1 we were livin' in the sun we had found a place to run holdin' closely to the mare golden rays on curly hair we were livin' in the sun we had found a place to run chorus we forgot about september but i know that we'll remember jumpin' o'er the garden wall thinkin' night would never fall verse 2 we were livin' in the sun we had found a place to run buildin' castles in the sand scarlet banner in our hands we were livin' in the sun we had found a place to run repeat chorus verse 3 * we were livin' in the sun we had found a place to run laughin' in the summer wind never see that day again we were livin' in the sun we had found a place to run repeat chorus tag we were livin' in the sun -----
