The love child of Joni Mitchell and Jeff Buckley, with some mentoring from Al Green. Seth blends his Folk roots with a smooth relaxed groove, combining Soul and Blues with lyrics that melt you with their simplicity and thoughtfulness. 12 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk Pop, FOLK: like Joni Details: "When it come down to Seth Glier's music, either you love it or you've never heard it before. - CD Baby When he opens his mouth, it seems like his entire body is a resonating chamber. A rich baritone fills the room... - Valley Advocate His voice just seems to tickle your spine. - Tower Records Seth Glier, a singer-songwriter/pianist, is an engaging, innovating, and powerful performer. Seth's blend of smooth contemporary blues, and intelligent pop/rock music delivers a feeling inside your stomach. Writers like Jane Flecher have written comparisons such as, If Joni Mitchell and Billy Joel had a baby, and Ani Defranco was the babysitter, the kid would turn out like this. Billy Joel's Piano, Ani's Lyrics, and Joni's Voice to kill. The energy, passion, and expansive artistic talent Seth brings to his live performance leaves fans and listeners alike talking for day's after his shows. As Tower Records put it, His lyrics don't just tell stories; they paint a masterpiece of pictures. The pictures are fresh, vibrant, and thoughtful. In the summer of 2003 and 2004, Seth was a teacher of music at Camp Kee-wanee during the day, while performing in coffee houses at night. A master songsmith, composer, pianist, this 17 year old has taken many of his musical influences from such artists as Martin Sexton, Joni Mitchell, and Peter Mulvey. Two years ago, Seth was a top ten competitor in the VALLEY IDOL competition held by Pioneer Arts Center of Easthampton (P.A.C.E). The following year he won the competition. Seth has been playing at renown venues' such as MASS MoCA, Boston Symphony Hall, Ballard's Night Club, and The Iron Horse Music Hall, just to name a few. Seth has been selling out venues within Western Mass, including two SOLD OUT show at the Iron Horse Music Hall (both times ever in the venue). Seth's new album, Space, has been a much anticipated sophomore release for Glier. The CD showcases his energy and creativity, and addresses the social, political, and economic problems within the world today, says The Recorder. Space, Seth's first full length record, showcases all-star players such as Joe Nerney on Saxophone (Stevie Wonder, Bobby Darin), John Hanifin (Grammy Award Winning Cellist), David "Goody" Goodrich (Pat Metheny, Peter Mulvey, Jeffrey Foucault). His original compositions are ones that engage not only your ears, but also your mind. His voice is one that cannot be matched, a master of dynamics. He silences the room with his blustering baritone, then teases it with his fluttering falsetto. He takes his audience to a place that is unknown without Seth's intoxicating groove. Seth realizes that it is necessary to look at all aspects of success. His favorite quote, "It is nice to be important, but it is important to be nice."
