Details: Sidney Vance Stephens started creating "Bugs for Dinner" simply to amuse his daughter while running a recording studio in Nashville, Tennessee. As the songs developed, it was obvious that it should be shared with more kids. It took six years of random writing and recording to create this CD. After relocating to the Austin, Texas area, starting a landscape company with his wife, and building another studio out of a shed, The CD was finally finished. Sidney has been involved in the music industry for many years as a writer, performer, and engineer. This style of music combines his distinct humor with his musical ability. It also creates a venue for his unique artwork for the CD cover and other media. The CD reflects his many styles of musical influences and genres.
