Posting on forums is a great way to make money. Sure, you could reach many of the same prospects with Search Engine Optimisation and Pay Per Click advertising - but we will use this alternative channel here. Many people know how to market online pretty well but they have trouble getting that initial traffic that will kick-start the process. Some initial traffic so they can do split tests on their sites. Some initial visitors who will buy the product and offer feedback and testimonials. And, even if you just want to send some traffic to your favorite affiliate programs, that's cool too... Guess what: Forums can provide all that! You don't have to do Pay Per Click and go out there "in the cold, cruel world" and try to "hunt" for your first prospects. The most popular forums in each market have many members that are passionate about what they do. The internet can be a very lonely place. Forums create a sense of community and a sense of "hey, there are others like me". People use forums every day in different ways: - They can just browse the newest topics to see "what's new" - as most people hate missing out on new information. - They can ask a specific question so that other members will give their opinions. - They may be very knowledgeable and want to help other members by answering their questions.
