LUCKY is Amy's 7th release and was released to industry on May 6th, 2008. Amys acoustic guitar drives most of the songs on LUCKY and is the heartbeat of the album. LUCKY also features Amys seasoned ability at the piano on In The Clouds. Produced by Meyers, she is joined by Jeri Jones (Blame Sally) on acoustic guitar, dobro, mandolin, electric guitar, and backing vocals and Pam Delgado (Blame Sally) on percussion and backing vocals. The solid rhythm section is comprised of Joyce Baker on drums and Paul Olguin (Shana Morrison, Maria Muldaur, Jeffrey Halford) on bass. Bay Areas Margrit Eichler (True Margrit) adds fun and playful piano riffs to Friday Night and January Days while

Judea Eden compliments many of the tracks with her strong, rich vocal harmonies. The album was recorded in San Francisco at GetReel Productions and engineered by Robert Preston. PAST NEWS AND OTHER CREDITS: Amy released her 6th CD, TRAINS AND HENS in December 2006. TRAINS AND HENS is a Childrens CD featuring 19 traditionals arranged in Amys pop/rock/folk style that are fun for the both the parents and the kids. TRAINS AND HENS was recently picked up by Indigo Books Music for distribution throughout Canada. Having taught the last 5 years in the Bay Area for the highly acclaimed Mary Ann Halls Music For Children, parents agree that this CD is long overdue. Witnessing the amount of positive joy and influence the music and fun spirit of TRAINS AND HENS has had on its listeners, Amy began thinking of other ways to reach children through entertainment. She is now working on bringing that same fun spirit and education to the TV screen with a new Childrens Television Show. The Pilot episode of Hello There is currently airing on the Chabot Community College Cable Station (Hayward, San Leandro, Castro Valley, Fremont) and will later be added to Community College Cable Stations throughout California. As a graduate from the theatre department at Northwestern University, it is no surprise that in addition to the club scene, Amy has appeared in several stage productions singing, acting, and usually playing an instrument or two. She was featured in San Jose Stages production of Return To The Forbidden Planet singing and playing keyboards and has performed in 4 productions of the highly acclaimed Off-Broadway musical, Cowgirls as the cello and guitar playing Lee.
