Mostly recorded live with some good buddies in Big Jeff's basement, Big Jeff II engages young kids with quirky songs like "The Shower of Power" and "The Land of the Bouncy People." 12 MP3 Songs

KIDS/FAMILY: Children's Pop, KIDS/FAMILY: General Children's Music Details: There's "Brave Young Fireman James," where kids pretend to drive the "bright red fire engine" and "put the fire out without a doubt!" There's "I'm a Helicopter," often performed with the kids twirling hand-out scarves over their heads like propellers. And then there's "The Land of the Bouncy People," which is about... well, Bouncy People! These tunes, along with "Shower of Power," "Frozen Peas," and "Opposites" are all part of "Big Jeff II." Two years after putting out his first CD, "Big Jeff (I)", Jeff crammed some talented friends into his makeshift basement studio, and they got a joyous down-home live sound. Since it was his SECOND CD, and he now had TWO beautiful daughters to join him on the cover photo, Jeff decided to call it "Big Jeff II." Parents who'd heard "The Orange Song" 9000 times were overjoyed to get some new Big Jeff music, and a lot of kids have been bouncing around their living rooms with it ever since!
