A world class voice singing intimate, heartfelt acoustic pop songs that you'll hum for days. Featuring "Everything To Me" as heard on "Smallville" on the WB 5 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk Pop, POP: Folk Pop

Details: According to Elza's songs, she grew up as a ball in a game of catch. She went back and forth between her abstract-mathematician father in Frankfurt, Germany and her visual artist mother in Charleston, SC. Elza, a third generation female, southern artist was raised by her grandparents on the only tea farm in America. Elza began writing songs at age 14, but after moving to NYC, she was soon encouraged to train her voice for an operatic career. Her ability to sing fluently in 5 foreign languages as well as her natural stage presence led Elza to place 1st in the National MacAllister Awards. However, while training in Italy, she realized she had to follow her heart. So she returned to NY to record her self-released CD: Elza and set out to pave her own artistic path as a singer songwriter. She kicked off her first west coast tour in front of an audience of 30,000 as a featured new artist at The Marin Music Festival opening for Bob Weir's Rat Dog and closed her tour opening for Atlantic Recording Artist: Martin Sexton in New York. Her songs have been featured on the WB hit series Smallville and she has graced such stages as the legendary Bluebird Caf in Nashville, Eddie's Attic in Atlanta, The Sweetwater in San Francisco, Makor and The Stephen Talkhouse in New York, and The Mint in Los Angeles to name a few. Elza launched into 2004 opening up for Jessica Simpson and Nick Lachey at the Orange Bowl New Years Beach Bash in Miami, FL. After seeing Elza live, film director, Demian Lichtenstein, (3,000 Miles to Graceland) was inspired to include footage of her performing in his next feature film. Both her song, Could've Been and Everything To Me, placed in the top 10 in the John Lennon Songwriting Competition. News12 Long Island, the WB Morning Show and UPN 9, NY have featured Elza as an Artist To Watch. Just recently, Elza was chosen by the editors of Billboard Magazine as one of 6 Finalists out of 1,700 entries in the DiscMakers: Independent World Music Series. She was recently on the bill with Hootie and the Blowfish in the Charleston, SC Celebrity Golf Classic benefiting Children with cancer and will be making her Canadian debut at Torontos Winterfolk Festival Feb. 4-6. Elza actively performs at events such as the Swim Across America for Cancer Research, the St. Judes Childrens Hospital Annual Event, the Make a Wish Foundation and is passionate about making a difference with her music. Elza is one of the best and sexiest live performers Ive seen in a long time. Walter Yetnikoff CEO, Commotion Records; Former President of CBS Records ...a voice that is unmistakable. "Everything To Me" is a song that seems destined to be played on stations all over the world. It has a great pop hook... The Acoustic Radio Sampler ...Elzas songs are heartfelt, catchy and very well performed. The quality of her voice and her abilities as a musician will definitely set her apart as an artist to watch for. Dale Hill, Music Connection Magazine Her songs are addictive, her charm infectious and her voice, well.youd have to hear it to believe it. Live, shes the second coming of Joni.
