This violinist and guitarist/singer present a unique blend of folk, jazz, and classical influences brought to standards from all three of those musical traditions. 10 MP3 Songs in this album (33:29) ! Related styles: KIDS/FAMILY: Kid Friendly, JAZZ: Crossover Jazz Details: Home From Work is a duo that brings a unique blend of jazz, classical, and folk influences to songs like Irving Berlins Blue Skies, Dave Brubecks Take Five, The Gershwin Brothers I Got Rhythm, Duke Ellingtons It Dont Mean a Thing If It Aint Got That Swing, plus the music of Django Reinhardt, Stphane Grappelli, Paul Simon, Aaron Copland, and more. Picture a violin, guitar, and voice, blend in some serious credentials in classical and folk music, add a common love of jazz, mix in some virtuoso playing and a genuine sense of ease on stage, and youve got Home From Work. Singer and guitarist Sandor Slomovits has been writing, performing and recording folk music for children and families for more than three decades, as part of the nationally acclaimed duo Gemini. Geminis recordings, songbooks, and video have won numerous awards from, among others, the American Library Association, Parents Choice Magazine, and the National Parenting Publications Association. Gabriel Bolkosky has played classical violin since early childhood and has a Masters degree from the University of Michigan School of Music. He is the musical director of The Phoenix Ensemble, a chamber group that has collaborated with a wide variety of artists, including Pulitzer Prize-winning composer Bill Bolcom and dancer/choreographer Peter Sparling. He is also a much sought after teacher, both in Ann Arbor and as a clinician at Suzuki institutes nationwide.
