Fusion of house Latin vibes, acoustic guitar, piano; featuring a Dominican singer. 2 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Lounge, ELECTRONIC: Deep House Details: Born in the Andalusian capital of Spain, Seville, Mister P sculpted his name around Europe, Asia and the Caribbean. Hitting the scenes of Spain, Switzerland, France, Germany, Taipei, Hong Kong and Aruba with his live acts shows, Mister P brought a new way of electronic music performance. At his tender age, his parents found out his strong chemistry and enthusiasm towards the music and decided to take him to some flute and xylophone classes, but that was not enough. He needed to realize his own style of music. So he decided to ask his father for a computer on Christmas. Once he received it, he set up his own studio and began to produce his first music tracks. Within these years, Mister P has been inspired by the electronics groups as: Technotronic, Bomb the Bass, Depeche Mode and the timeless giant Kraftwerk. His inspiration came from this style of music and of course from the acid music scene as well! In the early 90s, he got introduced to music producers who were ready to put him on the stage and live act perform. After a few gigs he began to produce for groups with different backgrounds and styles as hip hop, progressive and trance to extend his knowledge. Mister P's productions have always been inspired by the house music vibes and he has never been afraid to try the fusion of different sounds, styles and beats. People who are interested in Caf Del Mar should consider this download.
