Paul's second CD. Moody, melodic, driven and dream-like pop-rock with smooth, soaring vocals. In the same surreal vein as Paul's well-received debut, "PSD/Remedies and Colors." 10 MP3 Songs POP: Delicate, ROCK: Acoustic Details: Paul Stephen Duffy's follow-up to his acclaimed first CD, "P.S.D./Remedies and Colors." Moody and mystical music with unmistakable vocals. Q: Where are you from? A: Originally, I'm from southern California, you know, sun, beaches, all the stuff that goes with it. Now, I make my home in the quieter Midwestern U.S. I have my own "castle" in which I create my music. I prefer a quiet, "shadowy" existence. Q: Do you play with a band? A: No. I used to, but now I play all the instruments myself. My first CD, as well as the second, which has just been released, is self-produced. Q: Do you plan on playing live? A: Well, that depends on a few things, like how well the second CD does through saturating the radio airwaves. My first CD, "Remedies and Colors" was well-received by those who heard it. It did get a moderate amount of airplay in the U.K. and here in the states. Sales and interest were encouraging enough for me to make a second CD. And a third is already in the works. Q: Who've been your major influences? A: I've listened to just about everything that's from the mid-late sixties on, mainly to most of the rock legends. But, I'm certainly not limited to rock as far as influences go. I have classical music playing as I sleep throughout the night! As far as one or two major influences, I can't say. I love many of the bands and artists that have come from Ireland and England. Q: What are your songs mainly about? A: They're mainly about things that strike the emotions, my emotions at least, musically and lyrically. The main goal I'm after is to take the listener on a brief musical journey with a mystic touch to it all. One DJ, Eddie Russell, from Global Radio made the comment to me, "Your music surrounds like a dreamy fog." I took that as a great compliment. If that's the case, then I've achieved my goal as a songwriter and musician.
