The recordings are lo-fi, glitchy, and made with complete disregard for the current rules of recording and music production. Ben Edwards is a young musician/artist who has played and recorded solo and with various bands around Sydney for the past few years. He has also written music for films and television. Ben's main instruments are guitar and voice, but he has also played drums and keyboards in various bands around town. Over the past few years he has played gigs in pubs, clubs, art galleries, warehouses and lounge rooms. As an artist Ben is interested in trying to create interesting things and unique atmospheres without needing to spend lots of money.
