An eclectic blend of praise ranging from jazz to light rock, to reggae. 12 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, JAZZ: Smooth Jazz Details: RonSher T. Brooks is a native of Inkster, Michigan. This concenterated songwriter lyrically proclaims the gospel of Christ in songs of Praise, Worship, and Exhortations. Her love for many types of music and her desire to reach all cultures, has driven her to write melodic structures that impact the large spectrum of music. Whether it's Reggae, Blues, Light Rock, or Jazz; listeners are able to touch the sky, soar through the heavens, and reach heights unknown through her harmonious melodies. RonSher began to develop her musical skills at a young age by singing in the choir at Gethsemane Missionary Baptist Church. As her desire deepened, she joined various community choirs in the Metro-Detroit area that have performed all along the the east coast. While under the direction of the late Dr. Mattie Moss Clark and Toni Booker of Booker Production, RonSher learned lessons to last a lifetime. "These two great women taught me how to listen to the little sounds people tend to over look and make them available for all to hear." In the summer of 2003 RonSher joined a group named Pray Ground, and from there she became the keyboardist for Psalms Ov David. With these two groups RonSher experienced singing in several festivals across South-East Michigan, and appeared on a local television show in Lansing Mighigan. "I have an avid ergency to share life with God through song. Music is more than entertaining. It is an extremley powerful tool, and if used corectly, people will change for the better, and begin a glorious chain reaction ending with global change reuniting man back to the Father."
