decay ...DO YOU REALLY WANT TO STAY HERE? 'architect's eye' "mellow and ethereal soundscapes on a dark backdrop adrenaline power guitars through a wall of noise intricate beats between crashes of distortion the auteur of this is jean paul braghin (former member of 'fallen tears')" overcome of the emotions "decline is a penetrating soundtrack to the deep psyche that will grab and enchain you in a wide range of organic and electronic styles. Its essence of hypnotically layered sounds conceal a unerring sense of melody and structure that reveal a avant-garde song writing. decline is made of haunting songs, not a mere collection of striking sounds, it is multi-dimensional with mellow moments, ambient sounds and aggressive, faster, heavier songs." credits words, music, performance and production by jean paul braghin "People just don't want to see i am an eye..."
