Details: Big Atomic was founded in 2000 by singer/songwriter Wes Yoakam. The group quickly gained momentum performing in front of thousands at Atlantas Music Midtown, 99Xs Big Day Out, and the Atlantis Music Festival, as well as high profile performances at the Cotton Club, the 40 Watt Club, and the Georgia Theatre. In 2001, Big Atomic released its first album, Four Star Explosion, to rave reviews and much critical acclaim. Track three Breathe, placed 5th out of 10,000 entries in NYCs John Lennon Songwriting Contest, while other tracks A Postcard From the Edge of the World and Evaporate were selected by Smithereens frontman and B.E.A.M. Chairman Pat DiNizio to earn a B.E.A.M. Grant for emerging artists. Three songs from the album were also featured in director Ben Taylors most recent feature film, In the Flesh that was accepted into film festivals in the U.S. and Germany and earned a national distribution deal. Even MTV has recognized the band: power rocker When Sparks Fly was featured in the Making of the Video program for Brittany Spears Stronger. The most recent album release (Fall 05) Wrestling the Dragon and the Rat has sold almost 2,000 copies and is set for its second pressing. Wes has also been contributing bluegrass material for a Georgia film project, instrumental music for 3-D animation Jambalaya, and writing and recording a new solo Ep due out this Fall. People who are interested in Matchbox Twenty Crowded House R.E.M. should consider this download.
