Melodic folk-rock peppered with ethereal gothic elements. Eclectic mix of strong, lyrically-based, emotive songs. Similar in style to bands like Fleetwood Mac, Sarah McLachlan, Pooka, Folk Implosion, October Project, 54-40 and Sixpence None the Richer 6 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk Pop, ROCK: Folk Rock Details: Caroline's solo material is adult popular, melodic folk-rock and is similar in style to bands like Fleetwood Mac, Sarah McLachlan, Pooka, Folk Implosion, October Project, 54-40 and Sixpence None the Richer, if you mixed them together, added a touch of goth and shook until well-blended. Caroline has a distinctive, smooth, lush, and resonant voice with a dynamic range. Her music is a smart and eclectic blend of pop, folk, and rock, with gothic, ethereal elements in many of her interesting and unexpected harmonies. Her ability to see the world in colourful ways is clear to anyone who listens to her interesting lyrics and melodies. Caroline won The Great Canadian Talent Search, sponsored by Canadian Musician Magazine in 2003 with her song, 'Hey Gemini'. "Great songs, well recorded, well performed, and not what you usually hear on the radio, but just as catchy and accessible. This is new and cool and will be the next music everyone is listening to, as it captures both the imagination and the heart, while you can respect the honest emotional expression and the craft. All the songs are interesting moments unto themselves, reflecting a prismatic and charismatic performer with many unique and important things to say." - Danica Nolan, Indiemark "Definite ear candy..." - Tim MacAleese, Canadian Rawk Network
