The Second release from CPU. More Poets More Poetry. We urge you to wiggle while you think. Jambiant World Bop and startling poetry. 12 MP3 Songs SPOKEN WORD: With Music, JAZZ: World Fusion Details: Thank you for taking the time to visit our little corner of this tremendous web site. CDBaby is an awesome help to independent record companies and musicians. We hope you enjoy the brief samples of our CD and look forward to hearing your opinions of our work. Coyotes and Poets often find themselves unwanted and misunderstood. In many places coyotes often find a bounty on their heads. If not for certain laws we might find poets in the same uncomfortable position. You have no doubt heard of stories and legends of "Coyote the Trickster". Poets can be tricksters as well. The trick of language bringing a moment to life, bringing the fantastic into the realm of reality...all tricks of the poet's trade. Yet more than mere trickery... Music too, is such a magical thing, with its' ability to bring emotion into play without the use of words. As we all know when music and words come together it can be a very powerful thing. With that in mind we, Coyote Poets of the Universe, have brought our words and music to you with the purpose of bringing magic to life. Hopefully our playful nature expresses the trickster in us and emotions are what bring our magic to you. This project features more great guitar work from our friend Neil Haverstick, as well as amazing poetry contributions from fellow coyotes Ray McNiece, Danny Solis, Jess Graf, and Michele Gann. Thanks again for listening. .... still the cellist wears a fez.....
