My father was in the military for most of my life so, needless to say, I have seen a-lot more of the world than the average person, Id imagine. Some of the places I've been to right out of Texas have been, Anchorage Alaska, Ft Gordon GA, Europe, Sierra Vista AZ, and back to Augusta GA again. I was fortunate enough to be able to see Spain, Italy, France, England, and Berlin to name a few, as a young man, while in Europe with my parents. I graduated from Buena High School in Arizona in 1992, which, coincidentally, was the same year my father retired from the military. Shouts out to Mrs Rhonda Westman! (my fav'rite choir teacher!!) From there they decided they liked Augusta enough to retire and buy a home there. I decided this would be a golden opportunity for me to find myself a singing group to be a part of, since I'd been singing in various choirs from as far back as 4th grade up until my high school graduation in which I was a part of 2 different choirs simultaneously; a concert choir, and a "swing choir", in which we sang and danced to oldies tunes and up-to-date ones as well. To my delight, I found an R&B group within 2 months of moving to Augusta. We called ourselves M-Pulse. I became their 'bass' man. During our brief period together, we made a-lot of accomplishments, which were publicized in one of the local Augusta papers; Some of our public performances include; mall talent shows, radio talent shows, a carnival talent show (in which we won 1st place), an Augusta May fest, a few basketball half-time shows, and the 1992 Augusta Black Expo. Since that time, I had joined the military (10/'93), and served about 5 years, having only been to Korea and Ft Benning Ga on my own, definitely a growing-up-phase part of my life. After being honorably discharged from the Army, I worked a few odd jobs and security jobs in Columbus GA. I eventually moved to Augusta GA, ready for "a change" in 5/'99. I attended GA Military College in August of that same year (Crim.Justice/Gen. Studies major), and graduated 6/20/01. I earned my BS in Public Administration w/Criminal Justice emphasis from Brenau University in May of 2003. Since then I had been keeping my dream alive on my own, working with different producers in the hopes of creating a solid demo to shop. with the aid of Super Producer Sean Clyde ("DC Productions" out of Augusta,GA) that dream came true, and I completed an r&b album entitled "Playa" which received moderate U.S. as well as overseas success. However, by the summer of 2002, i rededicated myself to the 'real' super-producer JESUS CHRIST! and from my trials tribulations, developed 2 of my best testimonials on wax!!. My latest works, "keep on singin" "Praisin' him still" depict, to the very last word my old and new relationship with God, who's truly my savior. I'm very dedicated to whatever projects may come my way, and I feel my work ethic/ intense longing to understand the music business as a BUSINESS as well as entertainment, is what will make me a success in any business I choose to do.
