Songs written over the last couple of years inspired in part by the Great Tsunami -Christmas 2004, a TV show from the 60s, a lake and a grumpy priest from my childhood, a motivational book, and a German cabaret singer who is burned in my memory forever. 10 MP3 Songs FOLK: like Joni, ROCK: Folk Rock

Details: Don Tassone was born in Providence, RI in 1951, and did indeed attend St. Roses Church as a child. At the age of 10, his father thought that a formal education in the accordion would be a "good money maker" in years to come. Thus was the beginnings of a long relationship with the treble clef. A while later his Dad bought a $20.00 Stella guitar, a real turning point, though he never had a lesson. With the help and encouragement of a friend, Don began to put some poems to music and found that this would be an ongoing compulsion, following him through the years. This then is a collection of some of those compulsive confessions-inspirations, observations, assorted queries into the Great Unknown. Some are prayers, some analogies, some just thoughts- meditations set to music. These are the letters unopened...
