Eclectic, thought-provoking metaphors packaged in a diverse carton of musical soundscapes. 12 MP3 Songs ROCK: Emo, ROCK: Modern Rock Details: In late 2001, Crawford Turner, guitarist from Markers, went into the studio cave to create a musical description of thoughts, emotions, and ideas that had accumulated during the years following the dissolution of Markers. Performing nearly all elements in the process, including writing, arranging, performing, engineering, mixing, producing, and designing; Crawford has emerged from the studio with a new collection of sonic and rhythmic emotions that are sure to inspire creative thought or action from the listener. Performing drums and percussion on these songs are: Blake Milliron and Brian Carnes. Blake performs on 'Freedom of the Skies', 'Alone In Silence', and 'No Love' and appears courtesy of After Jeremy (thetoprecords.com/afterjeremy.html) and Unforsaken, also part of the Top Records family. Brian performs on 'Stop and Move On', 'Pilot', 'Ocean Too Big', 'Anxious', and 'Perspective' and appears courtesy of the Evergreen Sept (evergreensept.com), Parallel, and Joe Bag. Also involved in the creation was Bryan Tunnell, former lyricist of Markers fame. Bryan submitted his poetic touch by penning lyrics to 'Alone In Silence' and 'Ocean Too Big'.
