Song stories of junk yards, lost dogs, missing peices, and love gone straight and askew in Americana infused colors. 13 MP3 Songs in this album (50:25) ! Related styles: FOLK: Folk-Rock, COUNTRY: Americana People who are interested in Van Morrison John Hiatt Steve Earle should consider this download. Details: With his eigth CD release, Kevin returns to a big warm sound featuring a wide range of musical influences and some of Boston's best musicians. Influences incldude blues, folk, country and Americana - all combined to make a unique brew. The lyrics tell a story and the band rips it up on cuts like "Writing A Book" and "Walking Out In The Woods." Ballads go deep and talk about emptiness in the form of "Holes" and ask questions as in "House On A Hill." Songs from the perspective of a soldier at war ("Can't Feel The Rain") and songs about watching life fly by in the suburbs("Here We Are") make this record broad in scope and emotion. Writing and performing for almost twenty years, Kevin Connolly has carved out his own way of writing American songs and earned a reputation as a passionate performer. Connolly has toured extensively in the U.S. and Europe while maintaining a strong presence and tie to his New England roots. Working the college and coffeeshouse circuit solo, Kevin has also played major festivals including Newport Folk, SXSW, Kerrville Folk and Bumbershoot. He has opened up for a long list on notable artists including Indigo Girls, Huey Lewis, Todd Rundgren and Joan Osborne. Locally, Kevin plays solo acoustic but most often with his band or some version there of. Kevins songs have also appeared on network television in episodes of NBCs First Watch and in films like Danny Aiello's Mojave Moon. Raised on Bostons South Shore, Kevin comes from a musical family with composer/brother Jim Connolly a fixture of the West Coast New Music scene. Early influences like John Prine, Tom Waits and Bob Dylan remain inspirations and guiding forces. Writing descriptive songs that capture something about regular life in America today has been a running theme and preoccupation
