Marooned: When you have been in a relationship for a long time and you feel as though things may never progress to the next level, you can sometimes feel marooned. House Of Cards: When you share the same values with the one you love, a strong foundation is present. Bloom: Love can happen anywhere, at anytime, to anyone. Isn't it amazing? Missing Pieces: Sometimes you have to stand up and say, "I know I have my faults and I may not be perfect for you, but I am perfect for someone, somewhere" Cast The 1st Stone: The old saying is true; we all have done things we are not so proud of. When Love Is On The Premises: Love will always come and go. When love is present she brings all her glory. When she leaves she shows no mercy. Losing Ground: There are those days when it seems like you just don't make any progress. Mad About You: Sometimes you have to fight for the one you love. Your Love: The love that comes on so sweetly... Along The Way: Trial and error seems to be the main method of learning the language of love. We all make it up as we go. 'Til There Was You: This song I wrote for my girlfriend, Jill. When two hearts meet... This CD came to me very quickly, simultaneously as I recorded my solo cd To Be Continued... I have never had such a blast recording something that was so unplanned. These were originally just meant to be an extra track or two. It soon blossomed into a full cd. I hope the results sound as fresh to you as they still do to me. ---Bill The

Thrill
