Details: When I pick up my guitar to set down some lyrics, there is always a vision in my head of bringing the music alive. It was hard at first to tell the story and bring the listener along, but it was my goal to show the picture, it started out by small images and snippets of important times in my life that I would begin writing about. I am more of an indirect story teller than one who paints the complete picture for the listener. I like the listener to put themselves in the lyrics, instead of telling a rigid story. Whether it is of a broken relationship or my paradigm of the world today, says Matt. Todays song writers such as Fiona Apple, Dave Matthews and John Mayer, along with another player or band who is not afraid to push the creative envelope say it best for me. From one song to the next I try my best to capture a brand new mood His quest for musical excellence has brought him to Berklee College of Music. Fueled by his passion, he is constantly writing, arranging, questioning and evolving. Matts unique balance of charisma, songwriting and magnetic live performances with his bandmates, is a treat for ears, hearts and minds.
