Gospel music on the next level. Jazzy smooth meets Gospel inspiration. Let your heart be touched. 10 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, JAZZ: Smooth Jazz Details: NOELETTE A BIOGRAPHY Noelette, a native of New York City, was raised in Roxbury, Massachusetts. She has been singing since the age of seven. Noelette has shared the stage with such artists as Edwin Hawkins, Richard Smallwood and the former jazz pianist, Mary Lou Williams. She was also a background singer for Wintley Phipps' CD, "The Power of a Dream". She has recorded with Polygram Record Company with the female group "Paradise". Noelette's unique style has privileged her to sing not only in many different churches but the stages of concert halls, and theatres. While her words focus on gospel ministry, her melodies are entwined with the sounds of classical, jazz, and sometimes, even country-western. As well as having a unique vocal style, Noelette is also a composer, lyricist, and poet. Noelette has ministered throughout the fifty states, Canada, Bermuda, and Barbados. Currently, Noelette is a student at Oakwood College in Huntsville, Alabama studying religion and evangelism. Her current CD "Just to Say Thank You" has already proven to be a blessing to many.
