unique bay-area rapper who says what he wants in a talented entertaining way. 19 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: West Coast Rap, HIP HOP/RAP: Hardcore Rap Details: Pigtaktix (Pig-Tactics) was born in Vallejo California and raised in Santa Rosa, about an hour north of the Golden Gate. This album Malt Liquor Dreams is his first solo work to be completed. After years of frustration bouncing back and forth from studio to studio, he finally grinded up enough money to buy his own equipment, allowing him to record at home on his own. Half the music on the CD was produced by himself and other beats were made by people on his team. Pigtaktix has been through a lot as a youngster but doesn't like to brag about old events, or claim to be the "hardest". Instead he would rather speak about real everyday situations that are real, funny, and entertaining. But at the same time he does have a mouthpiece on him that is unique. Pigtaktix does not fall into the category of most of the rappers of the "Bay Area", meaning his style, topics, and manners are a lot different. He can put words together in such a way that he can say something amusing and clever rather than just using big words to rhyme and sound intelligent, while saying nothing. He is far from ignorant even if the topic of a song might be. Currently Pigtaktix is working on finishing up his next album and a compilation with his team, that consists of numerous rappers in the area that are each their own, plus a number of solo projects that will be done soon. Focus right now is on the album he just pressed and what to do next. Basically Pigtaktix is a breath of fresh air in a game that is so focused on commercial rather than skills and creativity. He is very focused and a hard working at the same time working six days a week to take care of his family.
