Details: Post Death Soundtrack is the antithesis of today's mainstream music culture, creating confrontational music by weaving Industrial, Electronic, Trip-Hop and Rock sounds. Post Death Soundtrack is a duo made up of Steve Moore and Kenneth Buck who share vocal, musical and production roles. In this project, style is less important than mood as it strives to encourage thought and communication on a deep level. On September 16 2008 Post Death Soundtrack released their debut full length album entitled "Music as Weaponry". A conceptual album, "Music as Weaponry" focuses on the process of belief, its role in the development of ideological institutions and their relation to ongoing violence - including the death of modern music. The result is the use of music as something new and powerful, lending a voice in the harmonization of the counterculture.
