There is no doubt he is an anointed singer, but is also an anointed teacher of the Word of God. It has been said "he teaches with a simplicity that even a child can understand." He believes God has afforded him the opportunity to sing, teach and preach the gospel to prepare individuals for the soon coming of Jesus Christ. Raised in a musical home he was subjected to all styles of music, mainly, gospel, some r&b, jazz, Negro Spirituals, and hymns. It is obvious to the listener of his music that he has the dynamic ability to transition from one genre to another with masterful precision and ease. Minister Ford is a singer-songwriter, producer and director. He started his own quartet at age 12 and arranged many of the songs. He started directing the youth choir at his church at age 14. He presently is Minister of Music at the Magazine Street SDA Church in Louisville, Ky. He is married to the lovely LaTonya Ford and has three children, Nicol, de-Evelyne, and Carrie. He is keenly aware of his responsibility in the selection of music and teaching. He states, "it must be scriptural, meaningful, hopeful, and relevant". As you experience his ministry your musical palette will be satisfied, your thirst for the Word of God quenched, and your desire for heaven realized. "Ralph is a truly accomplished musician who engulfs the listener with soul and Spirit. His earnest desire to share love and grace comes shining through his music.
