

Mp3 The B.i.g. Will - Almost Famous

DOWNLOAD HERE

The B.I.G Will returns, after two years. After 5,000 sold counting. For a limited time, while supplies last, when you purchase the album you will also receive 2 bonus discs. 1. Unreleased songs 2. DVD making of and "What'sHerName" Video 21 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Southern Style, URBAN/R&B: R&B Rap mix

Details: Go to my website to see my new video THE B.I.G. WILL IS BACK WITH A NEW ALBUM

REALLY PAY ATTENTION TO TRACKS #2,3,6,8, The B.I.G. Will, was born in Quitman, Ga. raised in Barwick, Ga. (The B.A.G) began his career in middle school being heavily influenced by Dr. Dre N.W.A., The B.I.G. Will would rap over instrumentals, put the rhymes on tapes and pass them out at school. "I was 12 or 13 years old rapping and everytime there was something that had to do with rap everybody would come and get me to do it WILL IS FRESH!" Determined to put his city Barwick, Ga. on the map he dropped his first mixtape Armed Dangerous Putting Barwick, Ga. On The Map Vol. 1 in 2002 Armed Dangerous Putting Barwick, On The Map Vol. 2 Both mixtape created a buzz for The B.I.G. Will SO Later that year in 2002 The B.I.G. Will felt he was ready for his indie debut, so in August 2002 he released The Neighborhood Superstar. A name given to him by fans and peers in The B.A.G. The B.I.G. Will captured the headlines on the Quitman Free Press, the first rapper to do so. "The editor had interviewed me and I was like man they probably have me on the last page or something, so that next morning my cousin called said nigga you got the front page not only the front page the headline!", but there was little to celebrate with the album production being poor he only sold around 400 copies. "I was upset with the game I loved my whole life and my first thought was to give it up". UNTIL.. Late 2002 he met Mario Meadows of Platinum Sounds Studio and President of Southren House Records in Albany, Ga., "I had talked to him on the phone back when I was doing my mixtapes (early 2002) and I was like this dude is crazy he just trying to get my money". But a meeting with Mario quickly changed his mind, "I called him up and I was just seeing what he was talking about and it was all good every since, man he changes my life, we listen to my album he was like you damn show got the potential". "He told me the little stuff that I was missing". So The B.I.G. Will listen to Mario and hit it big with the single Whatshername in 2003. Also in 2003 he kicked off his 1st annual GET UR MIND RIGHT CONCERT which gained him another front page honor in The Quitman Free Press(The Show includes Albany, Ga.s heavy hitters THER.I.P.Y. and SOUTHERFOLK. "I was doing a lot a shows and mixtapes but I just needed a song a song that just made everybody you go crazy". He sparked that hit single in 2004 2 years after meeting Mario and production began. The B.I.G. Will released Welcome 2 Smallville The Return of the King. His most successful album selling over 2,000 copies and 5,000 downloads, and he also scored a hit with the single Welcome 2 Ga. theultimatedcdlinkrated the album 4 out 5 stars and steted The B.I.G. Will was the next to blow from Ga. In 2005 The B.I.G. Will began to production for the album he said that is going to change the game, Almost Famous name comes from to his last album success. The first single off the ALMOST FAMOUS talks about what he has been through in this rap game and even the the fact that he was stabbed in the back of his head at a graduation party recieving 21 staples. The album is scheduled to be released this July and is sure to be a classic. This album is the trumpet to all courts and is the trend setter with no gimmicks and that cuts no corners. Giving you the real from his woods with crump hits such as WELCOME 2 GA., COCKY, and SUPERMAN to the ladies love WHAT'SANAME" Can't Feel No Better and the street bangers MONEY TRAIN This Ain't what U Want. . In a small country town that's about three hours from Atlanta called Barwick, Ga. (in Southwest Georgia home of Ole-E Field Mob) You won't find to many things that you would to talk about, unless you know INDEPENDENT RAP ARTIST OF THE YEAR, The B.I.G. Will Born Willie L. Smith Jr. For years this young rapper/producer/CEO/Writer has been doing his thang with the release of five albums and working with artist like Suthern Folk, THER.I.P.Y.(one of the producers of Field Mob),Ron Smith(one of the producers for Ready 4 The World) Southern House Producer's Mario Meadows(who mixed the whole album),his group UTG and many others. He was the headline of The Ouitman Free Press twice in one year and is known for throwing hellafied parties. WELCOME 2 SMALLVILLE THE RETURN OF THE KING was release in 2004 sold over 2,000 copies independently. Now Will's new release Almost Famous in a year 1/2 is his first major independent release. He took a year to record the album to get the productions right.Other than B.I.G. Will there are three other producers on the album to make the production larger than life. The Producers are Dooby

A.K.A. 6'9, Jimmy(Who?Dat)Johnson Mario Meadows with are three of the top producers in South Georgia. The album has a bit of blues,crunk,party, riding music. The B.I.G. Will created alot of noise with sinlges "What'saName" "Welcome 2 Georgia" Radio station are blazin the trakz 24/7.

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: