This adventurous cross-pollination on violin, piano and bass creates a unique crossover ensemble with a wide range-- a contemporary chamber-music-fiddle-band, you might say. "Combines mountainy roots music with urban jazz and hints of classical, careening between beautiful, bold and a bit of bombast." -- Minneapolis Star Tribune "Sometimes playful, sometimes dark, sometimes airy--always fascinating." -- Pulse of the Twin Cities "Kline's fiddle, which also graces the Celtic-folk outfit Piper's Crow, leads the way, emulating Grappelli here, Heifetz there, Vassar Clements over there." --Minneapolis City Pages
