Details: Tina is a Christian physician and surgeon who writes, sings and plays the guitar. Her music is fresh and unique, mellow, uplifting and inspiring. If you like the sounds of Karen Carpenter, Sade, Anne Murray and the style of Tracey Chapman, you will love the sounds of Tina. Though she may remind you of the aforementioned women, she adds her own unique style. She has written the words and the music to all of the songs on this album. This is a Christian album with lyrics that are Biblically sound. Though trained as a classical violinist she is a self-taught guitarist. She blends her classical background with her love of jazz and Bossa Nova. this has resulted in a very unique and melodic sound liked by the young listener as well as the older listener. She accepts invitations to speak and sing for church events and women's retreats. Her engagements are done through her company Heartstrings through which she writes, records and produces. So, if you are looking for fresh, melodic music that inspires, and uplifts this is one you will want to add to your collection.
