She officially embarked into full-time ministry November 2003. She doubles as a Praise Team member and Solo Vocalist at one of the fastest growing churches in the United States with an escalating membership of 18,000, Christ Fellowship Church in West Palm Beach, FL. Her recording portfolio includes but is not limited to projects such as: Christ Fellowship- United We Stand and Even the Angels Belinda Telemaque- Hang Tight (Marlin Award Nominated) Belinda- He Loves Me Bigger Than Life- Integrity Music and Gathering Group (projected dedute April 2005) Belinda's voice can only be described as Pure and Angelic. Her music breaches the generational walls. The anointing is extremely potent upon her ministry that many are stirred by her passionate act of worship. If you are ever privileged to experience Belinda's ministry you will be perpetually impacted, not only by her extraordinary vocal ability, but also by her transparent heart that yearns after God. Lives have been changed from eternal obliteration, by the power of God, to bearing an eternal hope through her ministry. Belinda has shared stage with Gospel Music finest, Cece Winans, Donnie McClurkin, Martha Munizzi, to name a few; but illumines a remarkably unique style of her own. She has made various guest appearances on WTCE, Trinity Broadcasting Network affiliate station, in Ft. Pierce, Florida. Belinda's most recent solo recording, He Loves Me, was primarily released in three cities in Japan where once again many hearts were encouraged and souls surrendered to Christ. "My hearts' cry is to witness lives transformed by the hand of God" proclaims Belinda. "That's why I do this. I see myself as only a vessel yielded to him for the fulfillment of his divine purpose. I am honored that the Lord has chosen me. My desire is for Him to be glorified in me."
