Details: Singing since the age of four in church services, community events, schools, more, Denee recorded her first project at the age of 11 [Stubborn Love] with Christian cover tunes. She recorded again at the age of 15 [Feelin Fine] songs that she co-wrote. After travelling through Europe she recorded her 3rd project [Changes] when she was 19 years old, all but 3 songs written by herself. At this point in her life she also sang at the National Affairs Briefing at the Dallas Convention Center with then president George Barbara Bush, Gary Ashcroft, Oliver North, many other political dignitaries present. (The standing ovation at the end of her performance will never be forgotten.) After her marriage the birth of her children she recorded two childrens projects [Plain Path for Kids, Plain Path for Kids 2]. Finally, after ten years of being the Music director at her church she fulfilled a life-long dream of recording a Gospel project, [Go Away With You]. She has performed in small churches in large conventions. She ministers in word song throughout North America, South America, Europe, Asia. Her focus is always on bridging the gap from humanity to God through powerful praise worship.
