After 5 years of hopping around the very small local music scene in Minnetonka, Minnesota, they jumped into the studio and eight months later they produced a gem of a record! With 14 tracks and very nearly an entire hour of non-stop, up-tempo, acoustic rock, Deece is an album you can listen front to back, over and over - through and through. It has overtones of rock, modern folk, blues, Latin, and death metal. "This album kicked my ass, and I still feel it!" said Charlie, the local music enthusiast, now converted into Evan and Joel's first uber-fan. So buy one (or two), e-mail us and tell us what you think- and if you really don't like it we'll have Charlie give you a call. Evan is a Sagittarius, and enjoys spending his time reviewing old episodes of Coach. He hopes to someday appear on the Road Rules Challenge and "put those totally immature, neo bohemian Real World drama queens in their place!" Favorite Album: Now and Forever, Air Supply Inspiration: Dr. Phil from Oprah Joel is a self-proclaimed "rummage sale thriftmaster" who currently boasts the largest antique toilet seat collection in the upper Midwest. He hopes to someday expose the socialistic undercurrents of Habitat for Humanity and on behalf of the American people, inform Rod Roddy that we're not impressed by his flashy elitist attitude anymore.
